ACTION TAKEN REPORT

SESSION -2019-20

Based on the aforementioned observations, several measures have been taken, both by the IQAC and administration, for quality improvement during this pandemic situation.

- The institution has procured the more sophisticated online platform, G-Suite for conducting online classes more efficiently.
- It has been resolved by the Academic council that soft copy of study materials be provided to the students through e-mail, what's app group etc.
- An orientation programme has been organized for the students on the usage of online library resources. Now they can get access of the books from their homes.
- In the new normal situation college office is trying its best to conduct the official works in online mode, following the protocol issued by the University of Calcutta.
- Regular cleaning and sanitization of the college premises are being carried on.
